INFORMATION NOTICE IN TERMS OF IVASS REGULATIONS

Dear Client,

Following the adoption of the current version of the IVASS Regulations, we hereby inform you that, in relation to the proposal or insurance contract agreed on the Internet or via a Call center, you have the right:

1. to opt to receive and send, in printed form or on another permanent support format, the documentation in terms of Article 120-iv of the Code, i.e.:
 - a. before you are bound by a proposal or by an insurance contract agreed remotely, the pre-contractual and contractual documentation provided for by applicable laws and regulations
 - b. within five days of agreement of the contract, the contract itself for signature
 - c. during the period of validity of the contract, such correspondence as required by applicable laws and regulations
2. to ask, in any case and at no expense, to receive the documentation in printed form and to change the remote method of correspondence
3. in response to the request by the Company to sign and send back the contract sent to you, to use - at your discretion - the printed copy or another permanent support format

The information notice has been provided in a clear and understandable manner, in accordance with the requirements of Article 121(3) of the Code. It provides the client with the information required under Article 121(1) of the Code, including that on the right of withdrawal in terms of Article 67-xii of Legislative Decree no 206 of 6 September 2005

Milan,

*Signed for receipt
